

From Bar to Bench and Back

Presented by the American College of Bankruptcy
Second Circuit Education & Events Committee

Tuesday, October 27, 2015
5:30 pm

Morrison & Foerster LLP
250 W. 55th Street
New York, NY 10019

Please join us, at the Second Circuit Education and Events Committee's inaugural event, for a panel discussion moderated by Hon. James L. Garrity, and including Hon. Melanie L. Cyganowski, Hon. Robert E. Gerber, Hon. Arthur J. Gonzalez, Hon. Allan L. Gropper, and Hon. James M. Peck, that will explore the experiences of lawyers who become judges and judges who return to private practice. The evening will offer a unique opportunity to hear six current or former judges, all of whom are College Fellows, discuss the challenges (and rewards) of making the transition from practicing attorney to jurist and back again to private practice. The panel discussion will be followed by a question and answer session and a festive reception featuring fine food and beverages and the company of Fellows from the First, Second and Third Circuits.

CONTACT

James Peck

jpeck@mofo.com
+1 212.468.8094

PAYMENT:

The cost is $100 per person

Payments must be received by:

October 20, 2015

Payment by check
only, delivered to Dennis F. Dunne
and made payable to Milbank Tweed
Hadley & McCloy LLP

