The Nancy C. Dreher Lecture on Bankruptcy Law and Practice has been established by the American College of Bankruptcy and the Corporate Institute at the University of Minnesota Law School to recognize Judge Dreher's lifetime commitment to excellence, the ethical practice of law, and scholarship. Each year, the Minnesota Fellows in the College invite distinguished practitioners, academics, or judges to Minnesota to discuss emerging issues in bankruptcy law and practice.

There is no charge for this program, however, preregistration is required.
Applied for 1.5 CLE credits
