OVERVIEW

2019 AMERICAN COLLEGE OF BANKRUPTCY SEVENTH CIRCUIT MOOT COURT EVENT

The first American College of Bankruptcy and American Bankruptcy Institute Seventh Circuit Bankruptcy Regional Moot Court (the “Regional”) is scheduled for Monday, February 18.

The Regional includes law schools from the Seventh and any surrounding circuits and is designed to serve as a formal practice for law school teams competing in the Duberstein Moot Court Competition at St. John’s University School of Law in New York City in March 2019 (the “Duberstein Competition”). The Regional is not an elimination round for the Duberstein Competition.

For the 2019 Regional, teams do not need to submit briefs. Each team should prepare to argue for both the petitioner and the respondent and, schedule permitting, will be provided the opportunity to do so in the preliminary round. The two teams with the highest average score in the preliminary round will advance to the final round.

Awards will be given at the Regional, which will include a trophy for first place and top oralist. Prominent bankruptcy practitioners and judges will judge rounds, and teams will receive constructive input from the judges following each round. This year, the Regional will be held at the Everett McKinley Dirksen Federal Courthouse.

To participate in the 2019 Regional, please review the attached information and Official Rules, complete the attached Application and return the Application electronically or by mail to Brian Shaw.
