SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2019

1:00 to 3:00 PM

Suffolk University Law School Moot Courtroom

120 Tremont Street, Boston Massachusetts

Please join us for the Fourth Annual New England Regional Moot Court Competition, co-sponsored by the First Circuit Fellows of the American College of Bankruptcy and the American Bankruptcy Institute. This year's regional program brings together two teams: Suffolk University Law School and Northeastern University School of Law. The teams will compete in preparation for the Duberstein Moot Court Competition being held the following weekend in New York City.

The regional competition will start at 1:00 PM with a short award presentation to follow. Judges for the competition include Judge Christopher Panos for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Massachusetts, James Wilton of Ropes & Gray LLP, and Rick Mikels of Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones LLP.

As always, the moot court participants appreciate the attendance of our First Circuit Fellows, who are encouraged to offer advice and lend support.

We hope to see you there!
